"EXCITEMENT"
Universal-Attraction
Starring Laura LaPlante

Nila Lyons is a charming girl, pretty, full of life and always out for a lark, the kind that is very popular with the fellow, but envied by the other girls. Life to her is drab in spite of the fact that it seems crowded with hectic adventure. Her antics have made physical wrecks of her parents and they quarrel with her. She leaves home in a huff, declaring that she is going to get married. The lads all seek the pretty girl's nuptially extended hand and many are the feats of the daring engineered by Nila so that she will get a "thriller" of a husband.

She finally succumbs to the pleading of a young surveyor who proposes to her while they are dashing madly along a boulevard on a motorcycle. His audacity appeals to her and she turns to kiss him. The motorcycle goes over a bluff into a lake, but the water is shallow and the lovers walk to shore hand in hand. They've agreed to separate once a month each year, but Nila's husband dislikes the idea. They quarrel and she leaves home via a balcony and porch vines for new fields of adventure--What she finds includes an abduction, a fall from an airplane and other events crammed with excitement and thrills. She gets a laugh out of it;--her husband gets several gray hairs.
